

The Hamilton Media Center
presents the real "Buck Wilder."

On Wednesday, November 5, 2003 Tim Smith, author and creator of the Buck Wilder Series, is coming to visit Hamilton Elementary. You may already know about Buck Wilder from his best-selling books that teach children about outdoor fun: fishing, boating, hiking and camping. He has been featured in the Detroit Free Press Yak's Corner and his books are used with the State of Michigan's 4th grade history curriculum. Tim Smith will be presenting his program to all students (K-5) at Hamilton.

Over 200,000 copies of Buck Wilder's books have been sold! Attached is a form you may use to pre-order the Buck Wilder books. Mr. Smith will personally autograph these books for you. The deadline for returning your order form is Monday, November 3, 2003.

"He inspires students to read, use their imaginations, and to believe in themselves."

